

I depend on the generous support of individuals such as yourself to reach as many voters as possible. A grassroots campaign takes a lot of work and requires a lot of funding.

The other side has an endless supply of money from special interest groups and individuals who don't live in our community. Our system is made stronger when the voices of many outweigh the voices of a few. I need your help to make sure I can get our message out and rise above the money and special interests. Please fill out and return the form below with your contribution. Thank you in advance for your generosity.
